And to prevent any Delay that may happen through Default of any of the ſaid Juſtices, the ſaid Overſeers of the Highways, or of any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, to break, throw down, remove and deſtroy, all or any Wear or Wears, Fiſhing dams, Racks, Baſkets, Pounds, or other Device whatſoever, built, ſet up, or laid, or to be built, ſet up or laid within any of the aforeſaid Rivers, for catching of Fiſh, as aforeſaid; and that every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall aſſault, hinder, or obſtruct any Perſon in pulling down, breaking, removing or deſtroying any of the aforeſaid Devices, in any of the Rivers aforeſaid, and being thereof legally convicted, before any one of the ſaid Juſtices of the ſaid Courts, ſhall forfeit and pay for every ſuch Offence Five Pounds, lawful Money, as aforeſaid; one Moiety thereof to the Uſe of the Poor, as aforeſaid, and the other Moiety to the Perſon or Perſons aſſaulted or obſtructed in removing or deſtroying any of the ſaid Devices; to be recovered by a Warrant from any of the ſaid Juſtices, as Debts of Five Pounds, or under, are recoverable by the Laws of this Province.

And for the more effectual detecting and puniſhing Offenders againſt this Act, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Conſtable of each reſpective Townſhip which ſhall be bounded by, or adjoin to, any Part of any or either of the ſaid Rivers, ſhall, and he is hereby enjoined and required, under the Penalty of Five Pounds, to be recovered and applied in Manner laſt aforeſaid, carefully and diligently to inſpect and view, once at leaſt in every Fourteen Days, from the firſt Day of Auguſt, to the firſt Day of December, in every Year, ſuch Parts of the ſaid Rivers as ſhall be adjoining his reſpective Townſhip, and having any Knowledge of any Offences againſt this Act, he ſhall forthwith give Information thereof to ſome Juſtice of the Peace, who ſhall immediately iſſue his Warrant to the Overſeers of the Highways aforeſaid, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; and the ſaid Conſtable ſhall alſo preſent, on Oath or Affirmation, every ſuch Offence to the Juſtices of the Court of Quarter Seſſions of their reſpective Counties, together with the Name and Names of ſuch Offender or Offenders, that he or they may be tried according to the Directions of this Act; which Oath or Affirmation the ſaid Juſtices are hereby required duly and carefully to adminiſter.

Berlin, Jan, 5. Recruiting goes on very ſucceſsfully all over the King's Dominions; but it is generally found, that the young Men are more willing to take on in the independent Battalions: On which Account his Majeſty has granted Commiſſion to divers Officers, for raiſing ten more of theſe Battalions this Winter.

"On Account of the long Run of weſterly Winds, 17 Sail of Dutch Merchantmen put into Cowes Road, pretending to be bound to St. Euſtatia, and other foreign neutral Ports. They remained at Cowes upwards of 6 Weeks paſt, but a few Days ago, a Jew Paſſenger, in affluent Circumſtances, thinking himſelf ill treated, went to Cowes, and there gave Information, on Oath, that there were on board the ſaid Dutch Ships, ſeveral French Gentlemen and Servants, who were going as Paſſengers to Martinico, and that he had Reaſon to believe, ſome of the Ships were laden with Proviſions and Warlike Stores, and bound directly to the ſaid French Colony. This Account being forwarded to London by Expreſs, in Conſequence thereof a Meſſenger came down laſt Monday, in order to make a full Enquiry into the Matter; but the Wind coming eaſterly the next Day after he got to Cowes, and not having brought any Orders to the Admiral for his Aſſiſtance (ſo that he could have no Help but from the Officers of the Cuſtoms) it was not in his Power, it ſeems, to make ſo accurate an Examination as the Public could have wiſhed, or the Nature of the Caſe required. However, he has ſtopt two of the largeſt, and taken out of the Reſt about 20 Gentlemen, and 2 Ladies, and ſeveral Servants, all Subjects to the French King. Some of theſe Gentlemen are Perſons of Note. The other 15 Dutch Ships ſtood to the Weſtward, through the Needles.

"It is remarkable, that during their long Stay at Cowes, thoſe French Priſoners appeared in the moſt Public Manner, dreſſed in the Faſhion, and ſpoke the Language of their own Country, and yet no Notice was taken of them; and they might have paſſed with Impunity, had they not given Umbrage to the Jew."

On Saturday laſt were brought to Town the French Officers, &c. that were taken out of the Dutch Ships at Cowes, and we hear that two Frigates are ſent out after thoſe that ſailed, and no Doubt will overtake them before they reach Martinico.

Some Advices have been received from Ireland, which have occaſioned many Councils to be held.

Jan. 16. Private Letters from Warſaw ſay, that the Court is extremely alarmed, ſo as to be deſirous of Peace almoſt upon any Terms. Some attribute this to the diſmal Accounts lately received from Saxony, particularly the Burning of Wittenberg by the Auſtrians, when they quitted it. Others ſay, that there is a ſtrong Pruſſian Party in the Electorate, and that they have ſeduced Numbers of their Countrymen out of the Imperial and French Service. Whatever the Motive be, the Fact is certain, that the King and his Miniſters are exceeding deſirous of a Peace.

Advices from Leipſic ſay, that all Reports of an approaching Accommodation ſeem to be intirely vaniſhed. In all Parts they are preparing to puſh the War next Spring with ſtill more Vigour than ever.

To the PRINTER.

SIR,

THE incloſed Letter is a Copy of what I wrote to the Governor of Statia, which he did not think worth his While to anſwer: Your giving it a Place in your Paper will vindicate a Part I am determined to act, and lay a great Obligation upon

SIR,

THE Indignity done to my Country, and the Injury intended to myſelf, on Wedneſday the 21ſt Inſtant, I think, juſtly intitles me to demand of you the Reaſon of ſuch an unprecedented and lawleſs Proceeding.

I ſuppoſe I need not inform your Honour, that in the Morning of the abovementioned Day I brought to two Veſſels to Leeward of your Iſland; but as ſoon as I found that they were Veſſels on a fair Trade, I acquitted them: That ſoon after I ſpoke with two ſmall Veſſels, bound to St. Martins, which I did not detain one Moment, but acquitted them alſo; all this happened in Sight of your Town and Batteries, though not within Reach of your Guns: And that ſome Time after, I was paſſing peaceably along Shore, with my Colours hoiſted, when your leewardmoſt Battery fired three Point-blank Shot at my Ship. Had they been fired from the Place you reſide in, I aſſure you, I ſhould have returned the Compliment: The Reaſon I did not, was my believing it was done unknown to you, and perhaps contrary to your Orders. And here I muſt beg Leave to obſerve, that I defy the bittereſt Enemy I have in St. Euſtatius to charge me with an inhuman or bad Action, or any Thing contrary to the Laws of Nations.

I make no Doubt your Anſwer will prevent my firing three Shot into the firſt Dutch Ship I meet on the high Seas; for, I aſſure your Honour, had I loſt a Maſt, or received any other Damage, I ſhould have made Repriſals on the firſt Veſſel I met bound to or from Holland. Your Anſwer will much oblige,

SIR,

Your very humble Servant,

JOHN M'PHERSON.

By Captain Rippon, from Liſbon, we have the following Advices, viz.

Dantzick, Dec. 17. We have been for this Fortnight paſt ſurrounded by Ruſſian Troops, and ſome of them are even got into our Out-works; which not having happened before this War, gives great Umbrage, and obliges our Magiſtrates to poſt ſtrong Detachments, and double the Guard of Burghers, in order to watch theſe dangerous Neighbours. A Deputation is going to be ſent on this Occaſion, with Complaints to the Ruſſian General. It is ſaid that General Tottleben deſires Leave to reſign.

Warſaw, Dec. 20. Though the greateſt Part of the Ruſſian Army has taken Winter Quarters on the other Side of the Viſtula, all their Light Troops, under the Command of General Tottleben, continue in Pruſſian Pomerania, where they hold the Poſts of Belgard, New-Stettin, Bublitz, and Corlin, with Aſſurance of being ſupported, in caſe of Need, by a ſufficient Body of regular Troops. The Ruſſians draw two conſiderable Advantages from their Situation in Pruſſian Pomerania; they not only Shelter the Reſt of their Army from the ſeveral Attempts of the Enemy, as they have done in former Years, but likewiſe prevent them from making an Invaſion into Poland. Another Advantage is, that they are enabled by their Situation to take the Field earlier than the Pruſſians.

Pruſſian Pomerania, Dec. 20. The Ruſſians have not as yet entirely evacuated this Province, a Body of thoſe Troops remain cantoned in the Neighbourhood of Stolpe, and General Czernicheff continues in his Quarters at Dieſchau: As a Corps of our Troops, under the Command of General Werner, advances that Way, we may expect ſoon to hear of ſome important Action.

Stockholm, Dec. 18. The Propoſition of an extraordinary Commiſſion, for examining the Conduct of the Senate, the Motives for their involving the Nation in a War, the Manner in which it has been attended, the preſent State of the Army, and the Advantages propoſed by proſecuting it, though more than once rejected by the Diet, has been at laſt carried; and the Commiſſion is actually appointed, conſiſting of a hundred Nobles, fifty of the Clergy, fifty of the Houſe of Burgeſſes, and fifty of the Chamber of Peaſants. The Secret Committee is likewiſe named.

Hamburgh, Dec. 26. From Mecklenburgh we learn, that Part of a Body of Pruſſians, under the Command of the Prince of Wurtemberg, was ſuddenly arrived at Damgarten, in Swediſh Pomerania, in order to attack the Swedes in their Lines behind their Entrenchments; the Succeſs of which we are hourly in Expectation of hearing.

Berlin, Dec. 23. During the laſt Siege of Wittemberg by the Auſtrians, there were 18 publick Edifices, and 182 private Houſes entirely burnt; 10 publick Edifices, and 51 private Houſes greatly damaged; 10 publick Edifices, and 130 private ones a little damaged; ſo that there remains entire but ſix publick Edifices, and 15 private Houſes.

Francfort, Dec. 23. Our Letters from Leipſic contradict each other; ſome ſay, there is not the leaſt Rumour of Peace in the Pruſſian Camp; others affirm, that the Count de Loſer, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Poland, is arrived there, in order to confer with his Pruſſian Majeſty concerning a Ceſſation of Hoſtilities; and that other Miniſters from the Courts of Warſaw, Vienna, London, Verſailles, Stockholm, and Peterſburgh, are alſo arrived there upon the ſame Account; but amidſt this Talk of a future Congreſs, the Pruſſians are advancing in Thuringia, and the Army of the Empire is marched out of its Cantonments, in order to give them Battle.

Paderborn, Dec. 18. Five Regiments from the Army, which acted on the Lower Rhine, have advanced towards theſe Quarters, in order to join the Main of Prince Ferdinand's Army, which gives Room to conjecture, that that General only waits for a Froſt, in order to penetrate, with the greateſt Part of his Army, into Heſſe, and oblige the French to evacuate it, and take Winter Quarters between the Rhine and the Mayne.

Erfurth, Dec. 23. Three or four Thouſand Pruſſians are come to take up their Quarters in our Territory, and demand of the Town 150,000 Crowns, and 4000 Recruits. The laſt will be more difficult to procure than the firſt; and yet Subſiſtance is very ſcarce throughout all Thuringia.

Hanover, Dec. 19. The Flower of the Britiſh Troops are quartered round Uſlar, where Prince Ferdinand hath his Head Quarters.

Prague, Dec. 19. It is very ſurprizing, that notwithſtanding the ſtrong Guard which was always ſet over the large Magazine of Hay, Straw, &c. that took Fire in the Night between the 16th and 17th, we have not yet been able to trace the Cauſe of this Diſaſter, the Damage of which amounts to ſome Millions. Our Army will ſuffer much by this Loſs, as this Magazine was intended for ſupplying its Demands during a great Part of the Winter.

Amſterdam, Jan. 6. Letters from Hamburgh, of the 2d Inſt. import, that they had an Account from Saxony, that the Auſtrians had been obliged, for want of Forage, to ſend all their Cavalry out of that Country into Bohemia.

Vienna, Dec. 15. "It ſhould ſeem that the preſent Condition of the Finances begins to leſſen the Animoſity of the War. It is certain that Peace has been the Subject of the frequent Councils held lately; and we may venture to aſſert, that the Terms lately offered to the Empreſs Queen are not inadmiſſible, ſince they have occaſioned Prince Charles's Return to Bruſſels to be put off for ſome Time, the Empreſs being deſirous that he ſhould aſſiſt at the Councils in which they are to be debated.

"Advices from all Parts mention the favourable Diſpoſition of all the Courts at War, to engage heartily in the ſalutary Work of Peace; and there is the more Reaſon to believe that important Negotiations will ſoon be begun, on this Subject, at Leipſick, as Mr. Mitchell, the Britiſh Miniſter, is gone thither Poſt from Magdebourg, notwithſtanding the bad State of his Health; and as Count Finckenſtein, Miniſter of State to the King of Pruſſia, charged with the Department of foreign Affairs, is alſo to repair to Leipſick."

Berlin, Dec. 23. Count Finck, of Finckenſtein, Miniſter of State, is gone from Magdebourg, by the King's Order, to wait upon his Majeſty at Leipſick. This Journey has occaſioned, and will ſtill occaſion various Conjectures; but private Opinions or Arguments decide nothing. Mean while, it may be remembered, that the late Count Henry de Podewils, who was alſo Miniſter of State, was twice ſent for by the King, during the laſt War; and that his Journeys were followed by the Treaty of Peace in 1742, and that in 1745.

Paris, Dec. 31. The Propoſals of Peace that came from the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, by the Inſtruction of the King of Pruſſia, might have been accepted, had there been no Mention of guarantying Part of Sileſia to that Prince. His Pruſſian Majeſty, in getting the King of Poland to uſe his Intereſt at our Court, and at Vienna, acted, no Doubt, in Concert with the Britiſh Court, who, we are told, has juſt made the following Propoſals, by the Channel of the Spaniſh Miniſter.

1. That we ſhall relinquiſh Guadaloupe.
2. Give up Port Mahon,
3. Demoliſh the Fortifications at Dunkirk.
4. Aſſiſt the Queen of Hungary with no more than 25,000 Men.

Upon theſe Conditions, England will reſtore to us all Canada, Goree and Senegal; reſerving to herſelf the Liberty of ſupplying the King of Pruſſia with as many Troops as ſhe pleaſes; but at the ſame Time engaging to ſend him no more than he ſhall think fit to take into his Pay.

Two Things immediately determined his Majeſty to reject theſe Propoſitions; the firſt, is the Demolition of Dunkirk's Fortifications; and the other is, that he will come to no Accommodation but for a general Peace: Such, at leaſt, are the Aſſurances the King has given the Empreſs Queen.

Vienna, Dec. 25. An Affair that is whiſpered may contribute much to the deſired Work of Peace: It is ſaid that the Empreſs Queen has reſolved to break her Council of War, and to create an Extraordinary one, at which ſhe will conſtantly preſide, and which is to conſiſt of four Members only. We are further told, that the Count de Caunitz will be removed from the Department of foreign Affairs, and made Grand Maſter of the Court; Count Cobentzel is to be ſent for from Bruſſels to ſucceed him. If this Reſolution be fixed, one may look upon it as a large Stride towards Peace; and eſpecially as her Imperial Majeſty's great Animoſity againſt the King of Pruſſia was conſtantly fed and kept up by the Count de Caunitz: He was the Cauſe of rejecting the Propoſals of Peace made laſt Year. As to three of the Members of the Extraordinary Council of War, they are to be the Counts Cobentzel and Caunitz, and Marſhal Count Daun; the Name of the fourth we have not heard.

Prague, Dec. 29. In Conſequence of the burning of the Magazine in this City, the Regiments of Horſe, which were to remain in Saxony, are marching into Bohemia, for the Conveniency of being ſupplied with Forage.

Prague, Dec. 30. The Corps under General Goltze in Sileſia daily receives Reinforcements, and yet expects ſome more Troops from Brandenburgh. Hitherto nothing remarkable has happened in Sileſia; however, an Invaſion is apprehended on the Side of Geirſdorff. General Baron Laudohn has appointed Wunchſelberg, in the County of Glatz, for the Rendezvous of his Troops, and all abſent Officers are ordered to repair forthwith to their reſpective Regiments. Eleven Thouſand Horſes are wanted in that Army for remounting the Cavalry, as well as for the Service of the Train, Baggage, &c. And divers Officers are ſet out for Hungary and Tranſilvania, in order to buy up Horſes, the Government intending that all Things ſhall be in Readineſs by the End of February.

In Spite of the Weather and the Roads, the Corps under General Guaſco, detached from the Grand Army, continue their March to Eger, to join the Army of the Empire. Mean while, the Enemy are very quiet: But they are raiſing Recruits with no leſs Succeſs than Diligence; and are aſſembling their chief Force at Leipſic, and on the Saale. This gives Room to apprehend, that they have a Deſign to transfer the Seat of War into the Heart of the Empire; which would anſwer ſeveral Ends: It would give them an Opportunity to ſupply themſelves with new Contributions, Proviſions and Recruits; it would render the War more expenſive to the Court of Vienna; and it would remove the Auſtrians from the Pruſſian Dominions, and at the ſame time interrupt their Communication with the Ruſſians. From theſe Conſiderations, our Troops in Saxony are ordered to be ready to march; which will be as ſoon as the King of Pruſſia's Deſigns are diſcloſed. Marſhal Daun, alſo, will then return to the Army.

Ratiſbon, Jan. 22. A Memorial hath been delivered to the Miniſters who aſſiſt at the Dyet, by the Hanoverian Miniſter, ſetting forth, among other Things, That the Emperor hath no Power ſingly to put any Prince under the Ban, or declare him a Rebel; and that by arrogating this Power, he expoſes his Authority to the ſame Contempt into which the Pope's Bulls of Excommunication are juſtly fallen; that with Regard to the hoſtile Behaviour of the Hanoverians to the Elector of Cologn, it was this Elector who began Hoſtilities, by ſuffering his Troops to act with thoſe of France, and by aiding them to invade Hanover; and that the Elector ſung Te Deum for the Advantages which the French gained: That if the States of the Empire would prevent their Subjects from hoſtile Treatment, they muſt not ſuffer their Troops to act againſt the Hanoverians or their Allies.

Jan. 5. Baron Teuffel, Envoy from the Duke of Mecklenburgh, communicated a few Days ago to the Imperial Miniſters and others, a remarkable Reſcript from his Serene Highneſs, dated Schwerin, December 13, which is as follows:

"That the Pruſſian Troops, under General Werner and Colonel Belling, had laſt Autumn oppreſſed his Dominions by heavy Exactions; that ſince that Time Prince Eugene of Wurtemberg had demanded an unexpected Quantity of Proviſions, ſome Millions of Specie, and ſeveral Thouſand Recruits, or that his Highneſſes's Troops ſhould enter into the Service of his Pruſſian Majeſty; and as his Country was reduced to the greateſt Extremity by Poverty and Depopulation, the ſaid Teuffel had Orders to declare to the Miniſters of the Court of Vienna, that if, as had been the Caſe hitherto, his Maſter received no Aſſiſtance, and the Pruſſians were left at Liberty to put their Threats in Execution, his Highneſs ſhould be obliged to change his Meaſures."

There are even Letters which affirm that that Prince had actually put five Battalions of his Troops into Britiſh Pay.

Dublin, Jan. 13. We hear his Majeſty's Letter is come over, ordering Payment of upwards of 1300l. being the Amount of Expences incurred by the Inhabitants of Belfaſt, on the Occaſion of M. Thurot's late Invaſion.

"Notwithſtanding the unwearied Pains taken by the King, to render his Subjects happy, Intrigues are carrying on, and Parties forming, in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom, which, ſooner or later, may have fatal Effects. The Affairs of Italy furniſh Grounds for theſe Cabals. Several Spaniſh Grandees, to whom his Majeſty was lately talking, repreſented to him, that thoſe Matters required equal Policy and Caution; that beſides the ſeveral Princes who have Pretenſions in Italy, the King of Sardinia, according to many Letters from Switzerland, had caſt his Eyes on that Part of Europe, and that the political Fineſſe and Art of that Monarch, were as much to be apprehended, as his military Skill. They added, that notwithſtanding his Majeſty's ſtrenuous Endeavours to promote the Happineſs of his Subjects, the Nation was diſcontented at the Regard he had ſhewn, and the Privileges he had granted, ſince his Acceſſion to the Crown, to Italians; and that the Spaniards were naturally ſo jealous of Favours granted to Foreigners, that if his Majeſty perſiſted in his Syſtem with Regard to Italy, the Conſequences might prove dreadful."

The ſame Day arrived a Brig from Rhode-Iſland, ------ Carpenter, Maſter, which narrowly eſcaped being taken by a French Schooner Privateer, off Port-Morant. The Privateer, in attempting to board her, run her Boltſprit into her main Shrouds, where ſhe faſtened; but when extricated fell a-ſtern of the Brig, which immediately crowding all the Sail ſhe could, out-ſailed the Schooner, and thereby eſcaped, though ſhe was afterwards chaſed for two Hours, and received ſeveral Shot in her Sides and Rigging.

The Party he fell in with conſiſted of five, three of whom, being on Horſeback, got off; but one of them, having a Fall, loſt his Gun, Ammunition and Blanket. The Priſoner told Colbert, that he belonged to a Gang of 30, with a white Man, who had been down to Long-Canes, and burnt all the Houſes and Proviſions they found there, but were otherwiſe unſucceſsful: That upon their Return they divided into ſmall Parties: That the Little Carpenter (Attakullakulla, with whom Governor Lyttleton concluded the Treaty in 1759, at Keeohwee) ſtill preſſed the Nation to accept or ſue for Peace, by which it is plain that he continues firm in his Attachment to the Engliſh: And that the Cherokees were rather inclined for Peace, than to continue the War; but were kept in Action by repeated Aſſurances from ſome Creeks, that their Nation would at laſt join them. While Colbert had his Priſoner at Mr. Trewin's Store at Auguſta, Fool-Harry's Son and ſome other Creeks came there to ſee him, appeared much diſſatisfied, and behaved in ſuch a Manner as to create a Suſpicion that they intended to reſcue him, upon which he was removed and concealed till brought away.

---Colbert was the firſt who brought an Account of his Succeſs to Town. On Thurſday he ſet out on his Return to Auguſta, and carried conſiderable Rewards for thoſe Chicaſahs who had been out with him. FIVE POUNDS Reward.

THIS Day made his Eſcape from the Goal of this County, a Mulattoe Fellow, named John Miller, his Mother lives in, or near Philadelphia, married to Henry Heany, at whoſe Suit he was committed; he is a ſhort, impudent Fellow, big Lips and Mouth, his Right-leg ſhorter than the other: Had on an old blue Jacket, Leather Breeches, black Stockings, new Pumps, and large Braſs Buckles. Whoever ſecures the ſaid Fellow, ſo that he may be had again, ſhall receive the above Reward, from SWAIN COLESBERRY, Goaler. ‡ 5s. Tbc.

RUN away from the Subſcriber, in New-Caſtle, on Saturday the 28th of March laſt, an Iriſh Servant, named Michael M'Cane, about 16 or 17 Years of Age, has dark brown Hair, which he ties behind, and wears his Hat ſmartly cocked: Had on when he went away, an old brown cloth Coat, with red Cuffs and Cape, and yellow metal Buttons, a ſpotted flannel Jacket lapelled, old leather Breeches, and yarn Stockings. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid Servant, ſo that his Maſter may have him again, ſhall receive a Reward of two Piſtoles, to be paid by LATHIM and READ, Merchants in Philadelphia, or GEORGE READ. ¶

THE Subſcriber, living in Marcus-Hook, Cheſter County, wants to hire a Blackſmith, that is a good Workman at Ship-work, as well as Country Work. Such Perſon may be aſſured of good Wages, by applying to JOSEPH BUFFINGTON. ¶

To be ſold by

JOHN MOORE,

At the Corner of Second and Cheſtnut-ſtreet, where Mr. Fitzſimmons formerly kept Shop,

MAdeira, Teneriffe, Liſbon, Fyall, Cherry, Malaga, Mountain, red and white Port, Claret, Frontiniac, and Old Hock, by the Pipe, Hogſhead, Quarter-caſk, Gallon, or in Bottles; Bohea and Green Tea, Lump, Loaf and Muſcovado Sugar, Pepper, Alſpice, Coffee, Nutmegs, Mace, Cloves and Cinnamon, &c. &c. for Ready Money only.

St. JOHN's (in Antigua) February 25.

We hear from Martinico, that M. Latouche, the new Governor of that Iſland, is arrived there with three Frigates; and that the French Privateers have lately carried in a great Number of Prizes. It is ſaid there is a Liſt of upwards of 30, ſome of which were Lumber-loaded Veſſels, whoſe Cargoes are very much wanted here.

Capt. Power, who arrived here laſt Thurſday from Briſtol, was attacked to Windward, by four French Privateers, three of which he obliged to run away, and the other ſtruck; but for want of Men he could not take Poſſeſſion of her. And Capt. Potts, of the Ship Julius Cæſar, bound from London to Jamaica, was alſo attacked about 25 Leagues to Windward of this Iſland, by ſix Privateers, all which he beat off with conſiderable Loſs on the Side of the Enemy. Capt. Potts had only one Man ſlightly wounded, but ſuffered ſo much in his Rigging, that he was obliged to put in here to refit.

March 4. The Diadem, of 74 Guns, and two French Frigates, have been blocked up in the Harbour of Granada near a Month, by Sir James Douglas, who had with him five Ships of the Line, viz. one of 84 Guns, two of 74, one of 64, and one of 56; but a Veſſel which arrived here two Days ago met the Foudroyant and Dublin, two of his Squadron, beating up to Barbados.----The French Ships fell in with his Majeſty's Ship Arundel ſome Leagues from Granada, and might have taken her, if they had puſhed for it. It is believed the new French Governor is on board.

A Ship bound from Naples to Martinico, taken by Capt. Reid, of the Ship Alexander, from London, arrived here laſt Thurſday.---And we hear a large Prize Ship has been carried into St. Chriſtophers.

March 11. His Excellency the General embarked this Morning, on board his Majeſty's Ship Levant, William Tucker, Eſq; Commander, to viſit the Iſlands to Leeward, under his Government; his Excellency was received in Town by a conſiderable Detachment of Regulars, and attended to the Sea by ſeveral of the principal Gentlemen of the Iſland.

Commodore Sir James Douglas has left the Iſland of Granada, without attempting any Thing againſt the French Ships there, it being judged they could not be deſtroyed without Bombs; but the Raiſonable and Montague ſtill remain there, and continue to block them up. It now ſeems to be pretty certain, that the new French Governor is not at the Granades. He arrived at Martinico in a Frigate, agreeable to our former Accounts, and the other Ships were intended for that Iſland, but were cut off the Land by one of the Ships of our Squadron and a Frigate, and chaſed down to Granada. M. Beaufremont is expected at Martinico with a Squadron and regular Troops, and we wiſh he may come. If an Attack ſhould be meditated againſt that Iſland, his Squadron may ſerve (like that at Louiſbourg) to increaſe its Fall; and his offenſive Deſigns can give us no Concern in the preſent State of our Troops and Militia, and whilſt ſupported by twenty Men of War, which we already have upon this Station.

A French Privateer of eight Guns, and a retaken Snow from Africa, has been brought in by the Belliquieux and Creſcent. The Enemy had taken the Negroes out of the Snow, and got clear off with them.

BASSETERRE (in St. Chriſtophers) Feb. 28.

The Fleet from London arrived here on Wedneſday laſt. His Majeſty's Ship Emerald, Charles Middleton, Eſq; Commander, ſent Yeſterday into the Road of Baſſeterre, a Sloop loaded with Melaſſes; and a French Pettiaugre loaded with Proviſions, bound from St. Euſtatius for Martinico.

March 14. On Thurſday was brought into the Road of Baſſeterre, a Sloop bound from New-York for the Coaſt of Guiney: She was retaken by the Foudroyant, Capt. Duff.

BOSTON, April 6.

The General Court of this Province, in order to provide for the Security of His Majeſty's Dominions in North America, and particularly of the Poſſeſſion of his Majeſty's Conqueſts there, during the Abſence of ſuch Part of the Regular Forces as ſhall be employed in an Enterprize againſt the Enemy; hath made Proviſion for raiſing 3000 Men, to be formed into 3 Regiments, under the Command of Gentlemen of this Province, to be commiſſioned for that Purpoſe, and to be put under the ſupreme Command of General Amherſt.

The Men are to be inliſted to ſerve till the firſt Day of July, 1762, at which Time they are to be diſcharged at all Events. But if a Peace ſhall intervene, or if the Regular Forces ſhall return ſooner, they will be diſcharged immediately after either of thoſe Events. They will not be employed South of Albany; and as there is no Probability of there being any War Northward of that Place, they can only ſerve in doing Duty in Garriſon.

The Bounty given on this Occaſion, will be Nine Pounds; three Pounds fourteen Shillings and eight Pence of which will be paid in a compleat ſuit of Cloaths, &c. the remaining five Pounds five Shillings and four Pence in Money. They will alſo have a Blanket for each, and ſuitable Camp Equipage, and all Allowances as uſual.

We have Advices from the Weſt Indies, that Captain Welſh, in a Schooner from Surrinam for this Place, was taken by a French Privateer the Day after he came out of that River, and carried into St. Vincents.

We hear from Saliſbury, that laſt Friday the Houſe and Barn of Lieut. Henry Eaton of that Place, together with the Houſhold Furniture, Hay, &c. was conſumed by Fire; alſo the Town Stock of Powder, which was in the Garret of ſaid Houſe: The Fire was occaſioned by ſome Sparks from the Chimney, which fell on the Top of the Houſe.

NEW-PORT, April 7.

Yeſterday arrived the Brig Fox, of this Port, Audley Clarke, in 16 Days from Monto Chriſto. Capt. Clarke informs us, that in Latitude 28, he fell in with ſeven Sail of large Men of War, ſteering to the Southward, but could not learn what Ships they were.

The General Aſſembly of this Colony, at their Seſſion at Providence, the 30th of March laſt (in Obedience to His Majeſty's Command, ſignified to them by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt) ordered a Regiment to be immediately raiſed, to conſiſt of 665 Men, Officers included, for the enſuing Campaign; of which the following Gentlemen were appointed Field Officers, viz.

John Whiting, Eſq; Colonel.
Samuel Roſe, Eſq; Lieut. Colonel; And,
Chriſtopher Hargill, Eſq; Major.

NEW-YORK, April 13.

Friday laſt the Brig Neptune, Captain Morgan, arrived here, in ſeven Weeks from Liſbon; he informs us, that a French Privateer, of 24 Guns, that had taken ſeven of the late Virginia Fleet, bound to Europe, and three ſmaller Ones, were taken by an Engliſh Frigate, and carried into Liſbon; and that the Frigate was commanded either by Captain Kennedy or Ogilvie.

About ten Days ago, Captain Morgan ſpoke with a Schooner from Salem, N. E. bound for Guadaloupe, all well on board, and about forty Leagues to the Southward of Nantucket.

Friday Night ſome Villains entered the Houſe of one Mr. Price, near the Whitehall, and carried off a Cheſt, which they found in the Entry, in which was Three Hundred Pounds in Caſh, and divers other Things; but the Cheſt being ſoon miſs'd, Hue-and-Cry was raiſed, and ſeveral went in Queſt of the Rogues; when they found the Cheſt unopened, in the Water, by the Battery, which they had caſt through one of the Embraſures.

Saturday laſt Captain Rook, in a Ship, arrived here from Liſbon, in forty Days; he confirms the Account brought by Captain Morgan, of one of his Majeſty's Frigates having taken four French Privateers, and ſent them into Liſbon, and ſays 'twas the Aquillon, Captain Ogilvie; and that Captain Kennedy, in the Le Blond, ſailed on a Cruize about a Week before him.

Effingham Lawrence, late Maſter of the Brig Audrey, of this Port, came Paſſenger with Captain Rook, having the Misfortune, on the 17th of January laſt, on his Voyage from hence for London, to be taken by the Warrior Privateer Ship, of Bayonne, of 16 Guns, and 120 Men, who ſoon after took a Ship from London for Liſbon, with Corn, which the Captain ranſomed, and Captain Lawrence, and Part of his People, were put on board her, and got ſafe into Liſbon.

The above mentioned French Privateer, during her Cruize, had taken twelve Engliſh Veſſels, two of which belonged to Boſton, from London, two from Newfoundland, and the others belonged to different Ports of England and Ireland.

Laſt Week the Honourable Cadwallader Colden, Eſq; our Governor and Commander in Chief, was taken ill, and continued ſo for ſome Days, but we hear he is much better, and in a fair Way of Recovery.

We alſo hear that Colonel Peter Schuyler, who has been for ſome Weeks paſt greatly indiſpoſed here, and in the greateſt Danger, is by the Phyſicians thought to be vaſtly better.

Since our laſt, ſeveral empty Veſſels arrived here from Philadelphia, to be employed as Tranſports.

Captain Waſhington, in a Brig from Philadelphia, for Jamaica, was ſpoke with off Turks-Iſland, about a Month ago, by Captain Crowell, who arrived here laſt Week from the Weſt-Indies; he alſo ſpoke with the Snow Dreadnought, from Philadelphia, for Jamaica likewiſe, off the Cacaſſes.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

Abſtract of an ACT of PARLIAMENT, paſſed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent MAJESTY, intituled, An ACT for veſting certain Eſtates in Pennſylvania, New-Jerſey, and Maryland, belonging to the Proprietors of a Partnerſhip, called, The Pennſylvania Land Company in London, in Truſtees to be ſold; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

THE Act recites a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 11th and 12th of Auguſt 1699, from William Penn to Tobias Collet, Michael Ruſſell, Daniel Quare, and Henry Gouldney, of ſeveral Lots in Philadelphia; and a Tract of Land in the County of Bucks in Pennſylvania, granted to Richard Noble; and of One Hundred Acres of Land in the ſaid County, and all Buildings and Improvements thereon; and of Sixty Thouſand Acres of Land in Pennſylvania; Five Thouſand Acres thereof in the Manour of Highlands, Five Thouſand Acres in the Manour of Gilberts, in the County of Philadelphia, Five Thouſand Acres in the Manour of Rocklands (Seven Hundred Acres whereof were to be ſet out upon the River Delaware, and the reſt to be one Lot out of every Townſhip) and the Remainder of the ſaid Sixty Thouſand Acres to be ſet out of ſuch other Parts as the ſaid Grantees, their Heirs or Aſſigns ſhould deſire (except ſuch as were already taken up) and alſo of all Lots, Mines, Minerals, Royalties, Commons and Appurtenances (royal Mines only excepted) with a proportionable Part of all Liberty Lots laid out, but not taken up, at and under the yearly Rent of two Beaver Skins.

And alſo, that by Indenture, dated the ſame 12th of Auguſt, between the ſaid Grantees of the one Part, and William Beach and others, of the other Part, the ſaid Grantees agreed to ſtand ſeized upon Truſt, to execute ſuch Deeds as ſhould be approved of by the Grand Committee of the Proprietors; and that the ſaid Grand Committee, or Grantees, by their Order, might depute any Perſon in the ſaid Province to contract for and execute Conveyances of the Premiſes, and that the nett Profits of the Premiſes ſhould be divided into Two Hundred and Twenty Shares, and be managed by a Grand Committee, to be annually choſen, as therein mentioned; and that the Proprietors ſhould be called, The Proprietors of the Pennſylvania Land Company in London; with Directions how the ſaid Two Hundred and Twenty Shares ſhould be transferred or deſcend, in caſe of Death.

And alſo, that in the Year 1720, the Proprietors of the ſaid Two Hundred and Twenty Shares, diſpoſed thereof to a new Sett of Proprietors, who divided the ſame into Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares, and Receipts for many of them were ſigned and given out by Thomas Story the then Treaſurer.

And alſo a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 23d and 24th of December 1720, from the ſaid Thomas Story to John Haddon and Benjamin Kirton, of a Tract of Land between the two navigable Creeks in the County of Kent, in Pennſylvania, containing Eleven Thouſand Acres; another Tract, lying at Pequa Creek, in the County of Cheſter, in Pennſylvania, containing One Thouſand Nine Hundred and Forty Acres; another Tract in Goſhen, in the ſame County, containing Two Hundred and Seventy-four Acres; another Tract on Schuylkill, in the ſaid County of Philadelphia, containing Three Hundred and Thirty-four Acres; one Oil, and one Corn or Griſt Mill, and the Land thereto belonging, containing Six Acres; another Tract of Land in the ſaid County of Bucks, containing One Hundred and Seventy-Acres; one Bank Lot and Wharff, containing One Hundred and Twelve Feet, in the ſettled Part of the City, with a ſmall Tenement thereon, and Three Hundred Acres of rich Swamp Land near Philadelphia (whereof about Seventy Acres were imbanked and incloſed) and Seven Thouſand Two Hundred Acres of Land in Pennſylvania, not then taken up; in Truſt for the ſaid Company.

And alſo a Conveyance in Fee, dated the 26th and 27th of September 1723, from Peter Sonmans to the ſaid Haddon, Samuel Bonham, Samuel Turner, and John Midford, of Two Ninetieth Parts of Ninety equal Hundredth Parts of a Tract of Land on the Weſtern Diviſion of New-Jerſey, called Arent Sonman's Manour, in the County of Burlington, containing Twenty Thouſand Acres, with the Allowance for Roads; and all other Tracts belonging to the ſaid Proprietaries in Weſt New-Jerſey, not then taken up; and all Mines, Minerals, Royalties, and Appurtenances thereto belonging (except and reſerved to the ſaid Sonmans, his Heirs and Aſſigns, one full Moiety of the ſaid two equal Ninetieth Parts, to be taken out and diſtinguiſhed from the remaining Part) in one entire Tract, in Truſt for the ſaid Company.

And alſo, the ſeveral Indentures, Conveyances and Deaths, whereby ſuch Parts of the Premiſes, as remain unſold, are become veſted in Thomas Hyam, Thomas Reynolds, and Thomas How, in Fee, in Truſt as aforeſaid.

And alſo that it appears, that about Nineteen Thouſand One Hundred and Ninety-four Acres of the Premiſes have been ſold, and that about Seventy-two Thouſand Three Hundred and Thirty now remain unſold, beſides ſome Houſes, Mills and Tenements.

And alſo, that Three Thouſand Six Hundred and Eighty-one of the ſaid Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares have been transferred to John Bell, who, by his Deed-poll, dated the 12th of November 1753, acknowledged the ſame to be in Truſt for the ſaid Company; and, by Deed-poll dated the 21ſt of September 1759, aſſigned the ſame to the ſaid Hyam, Reynolds, and How, in Truſt as aforeſaid.

And alſo, that Two Hundred and Thirty-three Shares ſtand in the Books of the ſaid Partnerſhip, in the Names of ſome of the original Proprietors, and Three Thouſand Seven Hundred and Twenty-eight Shares, in the Names of ſeveral Perſons ſpecified in the firſt Schedule,

And that, in Purſuance of Advertiſements, Claims have been made, under ſeveral Receipts, for Six Hundred and Fifty Shares, and Twenty-ſix Shares; and the Names of the Perſons who produced ſuch Receipts, or claimed ſuch Shares, are mentioned in the ſecond Schedule.

And alſo, that it is unknown who are entitled to the Remainder of the ſaid Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares; and that ſeveral of the Perſons, named in the ſaid Schedules, are dead; and ſome of the ſaid Shares have been aſſigned; and that the Premiſes unſold are greatly increaſed in Value; and, if ſold, would raiſe a conſiderable Sum to be divided amongſt the Perſons intereſted, and the parcelling out thereof may tend to populate the ſaid Colonies.

And alſo, that Contracts have been made with Francis Rawle, the ſaid Company's Agent in Pennſylvania, for Sale of ſome of the Premiſes; and that it will be for the Benefit of all Perſons intereſted, that what remains ſhould with all convenient Speed be ſold; but Perſons decline treating, unleſs all the Perſons intereſted join in the Sale, or unleſs the ſaid Lands, by Authority of Parliament, be veſted in Truſtees to be ſold.

Therefore, it is ENACTED, that all the Premiſes (except what have been ſold and conveyed by the Truſtees) be veſted in John Fothergill, Doctor in Phyſic, Daniel Zachary, Thomas How, Devereux Bowley, Luke Hinde, Richard How, Jacob Hagen, Silvanus Grove, and William Heron, their Heirs and Aſſigns, diſcharged of the Uſes, Truſts and Powers, the ſame are now ſubject to by the ſaid Indentures, and of all Right of the Perſons intereſted in the Partnerſhip on Eight Thouſand Eight Hundred Shares, but upon Truſt; with all convenient Speed to cauſe an Office-Copy of this Act to be inrolled in the Office of the Maſter of the Rolls in Philadelphia, and a full Abſtract thereof, inſerted ſeven Times at leaſt in the Philadelphia Gazette, with Notice that the Premiſes (not contracted for with the ſaid Rawle) are to be ſold by public Auction, at ſuch Times and Places in Philadelphia, as ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch Gazettes (not leſs than ſix Months from the firſt publiſhing ſuch Notice) in Parcels, to the Perſons who will offer moſt; and ſhall cauſe likewiſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and other daily Papers in England, Advertiſements that the Premiſes are to be ſold by public Auction, in Parcels, to the beſt Bidder, with other Particulars as ſhall be requiſite; and on Receipt in England of the Pennſylvania Gazette (in which ſuch Abſtract and Advertiſements ſhall be inſerted, or one of them, with an Affidavit made before ſome Judge or Magiſtrate at Philadelphia, of the ſame being the Gazette publiſhed at Philadelphia) to cauſe to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, and other News Papers in England, that the Premiſes are to be ſold by public Auction, at the Times and Place mentioned in the Pennſylvania Gazette.

And the Premiſes ſhall be put up to be ſold accordingly, and ſo from Time to Time, till ſold.

And, upon Truſt, to convey all Parcels, by the ſaid Rawle agreed to be ſold, to the Purchaſers, their Heirs and Aſſigns, on Payment of the Purchaſe Money, and on Payment of the Money agreed for any Part, by the Act, veſted in the Truſtees, ſuch Premiſes ſhall, at the Coſt of the Purchaſers, be conveyed to them, their Heirs and Aſſigns.

The Truſtees ſhall take Care, that ſufficient Security be given by every ſuch Perſon, for his due Behaviour, and remitting to England, with all convenient Speed, all Money received under ſuch Deputation; and no Perſon ſhall be capable to act under it, until he ſhall have given ſuch Security, and an Inrollment thereof be made in the ſaid Office of the Maſter of the Rolls.

The Receipt of the Truſtees, or of any Perſon deputed as aforeſaid, for any Purchaſe Money, in reſpect of Premiſes agreed to be ſold by the ſaid Rawle, or which ſhall be ſold under this Act, ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge, and the Purchaſers ſhall not be anſwerable for any Loſs, Miſapplication, or Nonapplication of the Purchaſe Money.

The Truſtees, after Receipt of any Money, ſhall with all convenient Speed pay the ſame into the Bank of England, or place it out in the public Funds at Intereſt, and apply the Dividends as the principal Money is directed to be applied.

None of the Truſtees, or their Deputies, nor any Perſon in Truſt for any of them, ſhall purchaſe under this Act; and every ſuch Purchaſe (if any) ſhall be void.

CHARLES-TOWN (SOUTH-CAROLINA) March 25.

Our Advices from Great-Britain to 28th January, repreſent Peace as an Event much wiſhed for, but at a great Diſtance. All Kind of military Preparations are going on with the greateſt Vigour. The Fleet for the Weſt-Indies is ſaid to conſiſt of twelve capital Ships. A Fleet is likewiſe getting ready for the Eaſt-Indies. The Grand Expedition is reſumed, and carrying on with freſh Spirit. Mr. Pitt continues the Darling of the King and People. Sweden and Poland, eſpecially the latter, are heartily tired of the War, and it is ſaid with Confidence, they will withdraw before the next Campaign. In the mean time the Motions of the King of Sardinia give Reaſon to dread the Flames of War will ſpread to Italy.

On Thurſday Capt. Colbert ſet out for Auguſta, with the Chickeſaw which came with him hither, and Preſents for thoſe that remained at Auguſta, and had been with him in his laſt Excurſion. He is to go towards the Cherokees with them, and ſome of the Lower Chickeſaws, immediately, without waiting for the Army coming up.

Letters from Gentlemen at Auguſta of the 10th, 14th and 16th Inſtant, ſay, "The News from the Upper Creeks is not near ſo bad as was at firſt repreſented. That Nation will ſcarcely break with us; what Miſchief has lately happened, was done by thoſe Villians who had a Hand in the Murders laſt Year, and was not in the leaſt countenanced by any of the Headmen. Douglas, with his Goods and Horſes, are ſafe, under the Protection of the Gun Merchant. The Wolf King's Return, with the Accounts he carries, will have great Influence in the Creek Nation. His coming down here was very lucky, and Governor Bull's inviting him to Charleſtown was well judged, and of great Service."

We hear from Mr. Galphin's Fort at Silver-bluff, that there never was known ſo great Plenty of Fiſh there as at preſent, which is a providential Relief to the poor People who have taken Shelter there. The Creeks ſtill remain at that Fort, and the People that Way flatter themſelves that theſe Indians will keep off worſe Neighbours. One Perry, who was ſent down lately from thence with Diſpatches to the Governor, found, on his Return, his Houſe burnt, and other Miſchief done; it is uncertain whether by Indians, or white People, no Indian Tracks could be diſcovered.

Fort Prince George, March 15. The Day after Mr. Miln and Major Thompſon left us, four Priſoners were brought here by the Indians, viz. Stephens's Wife and two Children, and one Trowel, of Captain Demere's Company. The Indians continue to bring in the Priſoners; we have received 20 in all ſince Mr. Miln's Departure, viz. 12 Women and Children, and 8 Men. To-morrow ſix more are expected. Some Days ago Attakullakulla, or the Little Carpenter, and his Brother Tiftoey, the Wolf of Keowee, &c. came to this Fort, and on the 12th Inſtant Attakullakulla delivered ſome Priſoners, and a Talk, in the Name of the whole Nation, to Captain M'Intoſh: He ſaid, That Willanawaw and M'Namar are gone to the Virginia Camp, with ſeveral white Priſoners, agreeable to what he had told Colonel Byrd. Salloue, the Young Warrior of Eſtatoe, with a Number of his deſperate Gang, are gone out againſt the Settlements, chiefly, it is ſaid, for Proviſions, of which they are in great Want. Salloue ſaid he got 100 of the Rangers Horſes. Captain M'Intoſh gave Attakullakulla ſeveral Preſents, which he immediately diſtributed among his Attendants, who are in Number near 500. He is ſtill here, and has ſent a Talk to the Governor, with a String of white Beads, in Behalf of the whole Nation. This faithful Cherokee is treated with great Kindneſs by the Commandant, as his unalterable Attachment to the Britiſh Intereſt merits. He enquired, in the moſt affectionate Manner, for his old Friend Capt. John Stuart, and has deſired Capt. M'Intoſh to acquaint that Gentleman of his good Wiſhes, and that he will be glad to hear from him or ſee him.

On Monday the 16th Inſtant, eight of the Settlers on Buſh River, a Branch of Saluda, went from Brookes's Fort to look after their Plantations, and were ſet upon by a Party of Indians, ſuppoſed to be Salloue and his Party, who killed and ſcalped Cadwallader Eaton, and took Edward Box Priſoner; the remaining ſix got off, and returned to the Fort. Eaton's Body was ſhockingly mangled, a Bullet was lodged in his Hip, on which he fell, he was ſtabbed in five different Places, with a broken Bayonet, and his Head was almoſt cut off; the Bayonet was found ſtuck in his Body.

April 1. This Day the Highlanders marched from Town for the Camp.

We hear from Virginia, that ſeveral large Parties of the Six Nation and other Indians, have been ſeen going againſt the Cherokees; and that both Virginia and North-Carolina are raiſing Men for the common Cauſe. We hope ſoon to hear this confirmed.

April 4. According to Letters from Auguſta of the 28th ult. the Mortar arrived at the Oakchoys (his Town) on the 4th, with 40 Cherokee Men, 10 Women, and 4 Nottawega Indians; on the 5th he was waited on by a French Linguiſter from the Albahma Fort; and was to give his grand Talk there, to the Upper and Lower Creeks and Cherokees, on the 11th: Since which no Accounts having come from the Creek Nation, it is preſumed all is again quiet there.

From Georgia we have Advices of later Date, which ſay, that above 100 Creeks and Chicaſahs had been there lately, all profeſſing a good Diſpoſition; That on the 28th ult. 39 more Creeks were at Savannah: That on the 29th, the Captain of the Oakfuſkees, the Handſome Fellow, and ſome others arrived there, with a Talk from the Kings and Head-warriors of the Upper Creeks, to explain and clear up the late Rumours, &c. to Governor Wright, and containing a Renewal of their Profeſſions of Friendſhip, notwithſtanding the inceſſant Attempts of the French to embroil them with us: That upon the whole, Things wore a better Face in that Nation than they did a Month before: Nevertheleſs, it was probable the Mortar's Party might ſtill do ſome Miſchief, with the View of involving the whole Nation: And that the Gun-Merchant was particularly active in keeping Things quiet, and protecting the Traders whenever he ſuſpects Danger.

The Aquilon was ſtationed off Scilly.

The Snow Eglington, Archibald Roberton, was taken between South-Carolina and Bermuda, on the 12th of March, in Latitude 21. Longitude 66. 43. by a French Letter of Marque Brig, but ranſomed for 200 Guineas. The French put ſix Engliſhmen on board, belonging to a new Snow from Newberry for St. Kitts, which he had taken. The Ketch Jenny, Aſh, Maſter, from Liſbon, was taken by the ſame Brig on the 14th. This Brig is Bermuda built, mounted eight 6 Pounders and 8 Swivels, and had about 40 Men, was from Martinico bound for Marſeilles, with a very valuable Cargo of Indico, Cocoa, and Coffee on board, which ſhe was to land at Cadiz. Captain Aſh made the 5th Veſſel ſhe had taken, three of which ſhe burnt, one of them a Schooner.

Captain Valentine's Prize, from Jamaica, is expected in every Hour, the Man of War's Claim having been thrown out of Court. The Privateer continues her Cruize.

The Schooner Delight, Thomas Wallace, Maſter, from South-Carolina for Philadelphia, run aſhore the 8th Inſt. in the Night, at Little Egg-Harbour; the Veſſel and Cargo will be entirely loſt, as the Men went aſhore, and left her to drive to Pieces: The Captain could not be found, neither will the Men give any Account of him. The Regiſter of the Veſſel was in Captain Wallace's Name, tho' the People ſay one Burns was then Maſter.

Tueſday laſt the Brig Royal-American, Capt. Fairley, arrived here in 30 Days from Madeira: Some Days before he ſailed from thence, two Dutch Men of War, having about 50 Sail of Merchantmen under their Convoy, for the Weſt-Indies, put in there, but were ſoon to proceed on their Voyages. The 10th Inſtant Capt. Fairley ſpoke with the Schooner May-Flower, who had been 7 Days from Philadelphia, bound for the Weſt-Indies, all well on board.

Thurſday laſt Captain Johnſon arrived here in a Brig in 29 Days from Jamaica: Off Crooked-Iſland he met with a Boat, with five Men in her, who ſaid they belonged to the Privateer Sloop Harlequin, Capt. Omen, of this Port, who was caſt away on Ackland's Key, and that they were bound to Providence, to endeavour to obtain a ſmall Sloop, to carry away all that could be ſaved of the Wreck.

The Ship ------, George Hunter, Maſter, of Philadelphia, from Newfoundland to Cadiz, put into Fyall the 29th of January: In 10 Days after they left the Land they ſprung a Leak, and it was with Difficulty all Hands could keep her free, with both Pumps going.

About the 8th of February, the Ship Marquis of Granby, Captain Liſle, of and from Philadelphia to Liſbon, ſprung a Leak at Sea; when, within 10 Leagues of Fyall, all the Hands took to their Boat, and left her; and the next Day ſhe was drove cloſe in with St. George's, where ſhe was towed into a good Harbour.

LOTTERY

THE Truſtees cannot omit this Opportunity of returning their moſt ſincere Thanks for the Countenance and Encouragement which this Inſtitution has ſo often received from their Countrymen; by Means of which they have been enabled to go a great Way in bringing it to the Perfection and final Eſtabliſhment, which they always had in View. There are at preſent upwards of 70 Youths belonging to it, from diſtant Places, who are now lodged in a diſperſed Manner, through various Parts of the City, and a far greater Number might be expected, if they could be accommodated in a COLLEGIATE WAY; by Means of which the Expence would be much leſs, and the Diſcipline far better. The following Lottery is therefore propoſed to erect thoſe ADDITIONAL BUILDINGS, which may be neceſſary for this Purpoſe; in the Plan of which two Charity Schools will be included, as the Boys Charity School is an old inconvenient wooden Building, and the Girls School almoſt ready to tumble down. As the compleating this Undertaking will be a great Ornament to the City, as well as a great Advantage to it, by the Number of Youths which it will draw to this Place, it is not doubted but it will be encouraged, as well by the Inhabitants, as by Perſons at a Diſtance, for whoſe Benefit it is very particularly calculated.

SCHEME

Of a LOTTERY for raiſing Five Hundred Pounds, for enlarging Trinity Church, of Oxford Townſhip, Philadelphia County, erecting of Galleries, walling in the Grave-yard, &c.

THE Scheme of this Lottery is calculated upon as eaſy Terms as any hitherto propoſed, and with as laudible a Deſign as any of them; it is therefore hoped it will meet with all the Encouragement from the Public it juſt.y merits. The Blanks and Prizes are not quite as two to one, and the Deduction very low, 10 per Cent. and thence the more favourable for the Adventurers.

As the Voice of the Public has given a kind of Sanction to Lotteries, in general, more eſpecially thoſe intended for noble and diſintereſted Deſigns; we preſume it would be an Affront to their Underſtandings, to entertain them with Arguments in their Juſtification; we ſhall only add, that if Benevolence be the Motive to Perſons to become Adventurers in this Lottery, there can ſcarce be a finer Opportunity to exert it; if Intereſt have the Aſcendency, the Scheme is ſo calculated, that they have a fairer Chance of becoming fortunate, than in any other that has yet been made public.

As we have been conſtant Adventurers in all the Lotteries that have been in the City, we hope the Inhabitants of Philadelphia will, out of Gratitude, generouſly aſſiſt us; more eſpecially, as this Church is ſo conveniently ſituated, that the Citizens, occaſionally, either from Town, or their Country Seats, in the Summer Seaſon, may very readily attend Divine Service; and if this Lottery ſucceeds, ſome decent Pews will be purpoſely erected, and ſet apart for Strangers.

N. B. The Advertiſement of April 9, of the Sale of the London Company's Eſtate, being inſerted only in the Supplement to the Pennſylvania Gazette, it was afterwards apprehended that it might admit of a Diſpute, whether the Supplement would fully anſwer the Purpoſe, as the Act required it ſhould be inſerted in the Gazette aforeſaid; therefore, to remove all Objections, it was thought beſt to have it inſerted anew in the Gazette itſelf, which, of Courſe, makes an Alteration in the Days of Sale; and it was alſo ſince thought proper to endeavour to finiſh the Sales of the whole Intereſt this Fall, which, the Public may perceive by the above Advertiſement, is intended to be done in November next.

THE Managers and Congregation of St. PAUL'S CHURCH, in Philadelphia, return their moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks to the Adventurers in the late Lottery, for finiſhing and compleating the ſaid Church; the Alacrity and Chearfulneſs manifeſted on that Occaſion, by filling that Lottery in leſs than twenty Days from its Publication, deſerve the moſt public Acknowledgments. The Application of great Numbers for Tickets, after they were all ſold, and their earneſt Deſire that another Lottery might be ſet up, towards exonerating the Land, on Part whereof that Church is erected, from the Groundrent wherewith it is chargeable, and for purchaſing a Burial-place, are the only Motives that this Lottery is now made, and the further Continuance of the Favours of the Public requeſted; whereby the Church will be cleared from the Groundrent, and the Congregation thereof will have a Place for the Interment of their Dead, as they are the only Society in this City deſtitute of a Burial Ground.

By Captain Mulloy, in a ſhort Paſſage from Liverpool, we have public Advices to the 6th of March, the moſt material of which are as follow, viz.

Whitehall, March 3.

This day an expreſs arrived at the Earl of Holderneſſe's office, with letters of the 27th of February, from the hon. major-general Yorke, his majeſty's miniſter plenipotentiary at the Hague, with the following account of the progreſs of his majeſty's army in Heſſe.

Prince Ferdinand's head-quarters at Hauſen, near Ober-Aula, February 21, 1761.

THE commandant of Fritzlar having accepted the conditions offered him, except thoſe concerning the garriſons of Waldock and Wildungen, which were no longer inſiſted on, upon his declaring, that the troops in thoſe places were not under his command, he marched out of the town in the evening, with his corps, conſiſting of ſeven piquets drawn from the Iriſh battalions, and 965 men of the royal grenadiers, beſides 105 wounded or ſick, agreeable to the capitulation. My Lord Granby ſent word the next day to the commandant of the caſtle of Gudenſburg, that he was ready to grant the ſame conditions to him as M. de Narbonne had obtained, with which propoſal the commandant very readily accepted, as proviſions, and particularly water, began to fail them.

The army renewed their march on the 17th, and advanced as far as Ober-Vorſchutz. The van guard took poſſeſſion of the paſs of Feltſberg: Major-general Zaſtrow of that at Nieder-Mellerich. The Hereditary Prince poſted himſelf in the neighbourhood of Falckenberg, and was beforehand with the Enemy in taking poſſeſſion of the poſt of Hombourg with a party of his huſſars. The reigning Count of Schaumbourg-Lippe took the command of a great body of the army which remained in the neighbourhood of Caſſel, and was joined by the corps under general Gilſac.

The ſame day our troops entered Melſungen, which Marſhal Broglio left the preceding evening, in order to repair to Hirſchfeld. The enemy had only time to deſtroy a part of the magazine there, and there was found remaining a quantity of meal and forage. Our troops ſeized another conſiderable magazine at Ober-Morſchen. A courier, who was diſpatched by meſſrs. de Stainville and de Solms, expecting to find the Marſhal at Melſungen, was taken by our huſſars; and we learnt from the letters he carried, the defeat of the Saxon troops by M. de Sporcken near Langenſaltze.

The army paſſed the Eder on the 11th at Felſberg, and at Nieder-Mellerich, and was cantoned between the Aſſe and the Fulda, in the neighbourhood of Hombourgh. The Hereditary Prince was a day's march before them towards Hirſchfeld. My Lord Granby marched to Frittendorff, by the way of Ziegenhayn.

The enemy having re-aſſembled a body of troops near Ober Weimar, and Nieder Weimar, not far from Marbourg, lieut. gen. Oheim determined at firſt to attack them, but altered his intention, on receiving an account of the march of a body of the enemy, under the command of the Chevalier de Maupeou, who had come from Siegen, with an appearance of making ſome attempt by Padberg and Berleberg, upon Franckenberg.

On the 16th M. d'Oheim left Wettern to go to Franckenberg, and he found the enemy poſted near Rodenau, in order to defend the paſſage of the Eder, which was made difficult by the marſhy ground there. The bridge of Franckenberg being broken by the ſwell of the water, M. d'Oheim was obliged to ſtop to repair it. The enemy took advantage of theſe obſtacles to withdraw themſelves in the night towards Hallenberg, after having deſtroyed the bridge of Rodenau: M. d'Oheim was no ſooner informed of that retreat, than he ordered a part of his cavalry to ford the river, and to occupy the heights on the left bank of the Eder; and ſent parties to Sachſenberg and Hallenberg, to get intelligence of the enemy. The repair of the bridge of Franckenberg was finiſhed. M. d'Oheim having learnt the 17th, that M. de Maupeou was with his corps at Sachſenberg, after having ſufficiently provided for the ſecurity of the poſt of Franckenberg, and of the heavy artillery, put himſelf in motion on the 18th, early in the morning, to march towards the enemy, whoſe advanced guard he met with between Sachſenberg and Neuenkirchen. It was that inſtant attacked and routed; M. de Maupeou, lieutenant-general, who was there in perſon, was taken, with a lieutenant-colonel, five officers, and 50 ſoldiers. The enemy having fell back towards Hallenberg, M. d'Oheim returned to Franckenberg to give his troops ſome reſt there, and obſerve the motions the enemy might make on the ſide of Marbourg, towards which ſeveral of their regiments had filed off. Major Scheither attacked, the ſame day, a detachment of the enemy near Padberg, diſperſed it, and took 140 priſoners, amongſt whom there were four officers.

The army arrived the 19th in the neighbourhood of Sohwartzenborn. The Hereditary Prince's corps poſted itſelf at Ober Gieſe, and puſhed detachments on to Gitterſdorff. My Lord Granby went to Nuenkirchen; the enemy's detachments at Ober and Neider Grentzbach falling back upon Zeigenhayn. The patroles of the Hereditary Prince reported in the night between the 19th and 20th, that they ſaw a fire at Hirſchfeld, which gave reaſon to ſuppoſe the enemy had abandoned that place, and had ſet fire to the magazine. This ſuſpicion was confirmed the next morning, and our troops entered Hirſchfeld, where there had been 15 French battalions, which marched away in the night towards Fulda. Great part of the magazine was ſaved, which had conſiſted of eighty thouſand ſacks of meal, fifty thouſand ſacks of oats, and a million of rations of hay.

On the 19th, news came from M. de Sporcken (by capt. de Borch, his aid de camp) whom he had diſpatched the day after the affair of Langenſaltze, with the account of his motion ſince the 8th of this month, the ſubſtance whereof follows.

M. de Sporcken, having divided the corps under him into two columns, one of which was commanded by Count Keilmanſegge, and the other by lieutenant-general Wangenheim, put major-general de Luckner at the head of a ſtrong advanced guard, who marched the 9th to Neiligenſtadt.

The firſt column arrived at Buren, and the ſecond at Stadthworbes. The troops halted the 10th. M. de Luckner marched the next day to Kulſtedt, Count Keilmanſegge to Helmſtorff, and M. de Wangenheim to Beberſtedt.

M. de Sporcken went to reconnoitre the enemy, ſeveral of whoſe regiments of infantry had paſſed the Werra, at Eſchwege. There were five thouſand French in the city of Muhlhauſen: That of Langenſaltze, and the villages in its neighbourhood, were occupied by Saxons. M. Sporcken found on the heights of Dorne four battalions of grenadiers of France, ranged in order of battle, and the infantry poſted in the wood towards Eſchwege, to protect the communication of the Werra with Muhlhauſen and Langenſaltze. M. de Luckner had orders to attack them the next day in the morning with his corps, which was to be ſuſtained by two battalions and ſix ſquadrons. The ſame day M. de Belſunce appeared before Duderſtadt, with 3000 men, and ſome cannon of the garriſon of Gottingen; he ſummoned lieutenant-colonel Rehbom, who commanded in that town, three times; and, upon the negative anſwers received from him, he cauſed the gates to be battered for three hours; but his attempts were fruitleſs, and he returned the ſame night.

M. de Luckner attacked, the 12th, the French and Swiſs grenadiers, who had paſſed the night under arms, in the wood of Dorne, over againſt his advanced poſts at Anerode and Buckewriede. He puſhed them as far as the heights of Egerieden, where they gained a thick wood, which Count de Solms had fortified by felled trees. They cannonaded each other. The enemy received reinforcements from the quarters on the Werra, and thoſe of the Saxons.

The night coming on, M. de Sporcken could not aſſemble his men, ſo as to undertake any thing againſt the enemy; he contented himſelf with making ſome changes in the diſpoſition of his quarters, and ſo puſh the poſts farther on. The ſkirmiſhes of this day coſt him forty men in killed and wounded. The loſs of the enemy was more conſiderable, and four officers and 50 of their men were taken.

M. de Sporcken put his troops in order of battle the 13th, at ſeven o'clock in the morning, upon the height called Eiſberg; but having found the enemy conſiderably reinforced; that they had occupied all the woods where the horſe could not act; and that the troops of his Pruſſian Majeſty were at the diſtance of three marches, he reſolved to paſs the Unſtrut at Silberhauſen and Hortſmar, to draw near them by forced marches.

He informed M. de Sibourg of his intentions, and the motion was executed in preſence of the enemy, without the leaſt loſs. The troops were cantoned between Kayſerſhager and Marolderode.

The corps of Pruſſians advanced the 14th to the height of Langenſaltze, which was occupied by 3000 Saxons. M. de Sporcken occupied the village on the left ſide of the river Unſtrut, with the troops of his firſt line, and drew thoſe of his ſecond line as near it as poſſible.

He agreed with M. de Sibourg, that the Pruſſian troops ſhould paſs the Unſtrut at Merxleben, whilſt he paſſed it at Thomaſbruck, and M. de Luckner at Bolſtedt. In the night the bridges, which the enemy had broken, were repaired.

On the 15th, at ſeven in the morning, all the troops came to the river ſide in order to paſs it, but the thaw had increaſed the waters to ſuch a degree in twice 24 hours, that there was an inundation from Mulhauſen almoſt to Langenſaltze.

The Pruſſian cavalry got through the paſſage of Merckleben, while their cannon was battering the town of Langenſaltze. Eight ſquadrons of M. de Sporcken's firſt line paſſed at Thomaſbruck, with a brigade of chaſſeurs, and a ſquadron of Luckner's, whoſe whole corps could not paſs, the waters continuing out all the day. In the mean time the Pruſſian cavalry fell upon the enemy, who were going out of Langenſaltze, and M. de Sporcken's corps did ſo likewiſe upon the troops that were coming down the hills to their aſſiſtance.

M. de Sporcken computes the enemy's loſs that day at 5000 men, at the ſame time that his own ſcarcely exceeds 100. Lieutenant-General Hodenberg was wounded, and taken priſoner.

The Pruſſians took three battalions, and ſeven pieces of cannon; and M. de Sporcken's troops took two battalions, and ſix pieces of cannon.

During the action, the infantry of M. de Sporcken's firſt line paſſed the Unſtrut at Thomaſbruck; but the troops being greatly fatigued, M. de Sibourg cantoned his troops at Langenſaltze, and General Sporcken's re-entered his former quarters, on the left of the Unſtrut, except M. de Luckner's body, which remained at Mulverſtedt and Schonſtedt.

On the 16th the firſt line, under the command of General Sporcken, paſſed the Unſtrut again, at Bolſtedt, and advanced cantoning as far as Groſs Gultern and Oppershauſen. The ſecond line paſſed the Unſtrut at the ſame place, and cantoned at Mulhauſen, where ſtill 53 of the enemy's ſick were found, and made priſoners of war.

On the 17th major-general Luckner, with his corps, compoſed the van guard, and marched to Eiſenach, which he attacked, and forced the enemy, who was ſtill there, under the command of the generals Stainville and Solms, to retire to Vacha. About forty priſoners were taken there, and two Saxon officers. The army made a forced march in two columns, and cantoned in the neighbourhood of Streck, and Neukirchen. Luckner's corps remained at Eiſenach.

On the 18th they halted. This day came in above 100 Swiſs and Saxon deſerters.

On the 19th, Luckner's corps, reinforced with four ſquadrons of Veltheim's and Bremer, marched as far as Vacha (the bridge of which was barricaded) attacked and forced the enemy to abandon it about midnight. Six of our men were killed, and about thirty of the enemy's wounded. General Luckner lodged the light troops in Vacha, and cantoned the reſt of his corps on the right of the Werra near Vacha. The firſt line marched to Ober Elin, and Forda, and the ſecond to Eiſenach.

On the 20th Luckner's corps halted. The firſt line of Sporcken's corps marched to Heringen and Kieſelbach, and the ſecond to Vehren Brietenbach and Frauenſee. The Pruſſian troops marched this day to Gotha, to obſerve the army of the Circles, which was re-aſſembled at Arnſtedt.

On the 21ſt Luckner's corps marched to Manſbach, and paſſed the Werra at Vacha. The firſt line marched to Freidenſwald, Hamelſhauſen, and Lengers, paſſing the Werra at Vacha and Lengers. The ſecond marched to Heringen and Vacha. Many deſerters came in from Stainville's corps, which made its retreat by Manſbach to Fulda.

LONDON.

Jan. 31. His Pruſſian Majeſty's affairs are at preſent in excellent order; his army is very numerous; his magazines properly diſpoſed, and well repleniſhed. He has fought peace while he was preparing for war; and the public will receive the moſt authentic proofs of the veracity of theſe aſſertions from his early operations, which may poſſibly decide the fate of the campaign almoſt as ſoon as it is begun.

Feb. 3. Eight ſhips are taken up by the government, at Portſmouth, to go to Fyall, to take in wines there for the uſe of the expedition fleet, bound to the Weſt-Indies.

Twenty-ſeven ſhips have arrived in the ports of Scotland, from Virginia and Maryland, in the laſt three months. What is remarkable, the ſame number of ſhips, from Virginia and Maryland, bound to the port of London, in the ſame ſpace of time, have been taken by the Enemy.

We hear that his Majeſty will be enthron'd at Windſor, on St. George's day, in the ſtall of his grandfather; and that Prince William will be inſtalled a Knight of the Garter at the ſame time.

Orders are given for buying up 2000 horſes, to remount the cavalry in the allied army in Germany.

We hear that twenty new Highland companies, of 100 men each, are raiſing in Scotland.

February 14.

The Hon. Commodore Keppel is to command the expedition now concerted, and is to hoiſt his broad pendant on board his majeſty's ſhip Valiant, now getting ready at Portſmouth for that purpoſe; and Adam Duncan, Eſq; is appointed the Commodore's captain.

'Tis now aſſured, that as the war is like to continue, an augmentation of the three regiments of foot guards will be made with 1000 men each, beſides 900 additional marines; with ſeveral marching regiments, for our better ſecurity againſt the French, &c.

February 21.

Letters from Saxony repreſent the Pruſſian army as upon a very formidable footing, and ſay, that ſince the commencement of the War, they have not ſeen ſuch prodigious magazines as are now forming there.

Advice is ſaid to be received from Germany, that a body of 8000 Auſtrian troops was ſo ſurrounded, that they muſt certainly be cut off, or ſurrender themſelves priſoners.

The government has contracted for 20,000 tons more of ſhipping for the tranſport ſervice.

The report that has been propagated for ſeveral days paſt, of a peace being on the carpet, is without foundation.

A letter from Madrid, dated Jan. 15. ſays, 'On the 8th inſt. the King ſigned an order for fitting out 50 ſhips of war and frigates, ready to go out to ſea by the 4th of March. This order, and the convention ſigned by our court, and thoſe of London and Turin, occaſion much ſpeculation.'

It is ſaid that the King of Sardinia's forces have received orders to be ready to take the field by the latter end of next month.---This, if true, muſt embarraſs the court of Vienna and her allies greatly.

From the number of piaſtres tranſmitted to France from Spain, it is pretty natural to conclude, that the French have come into the Spaniſh meaſures in regard to the affairs of Italy. If ſo, we may pronounce that the alliance between the courts of Paris and Vienna will not be of long duration.

Letters from Saxony obſerve, that the King of Pruſſia has already raiſed ſo great a number of recruits, that he will bring into the field this year 30,000 men more than he had laſt campaign.

Laſt Friday 70 tranſports were taken up for the uſe of the government.

March 3. The laſt letters from Spain ſpeak poſitively, that a treaty between the courts of London, Madrid, and Turin, is actually concluded; and that, by virtue of it, his Catholic Majeſty has ordered ſome of his troops to file off towards Barcelona, to embark there for Italy.

All the artillery and baggage of the five Saxon battalions, made priſoners by General Sporcken, likewiſe fell into his hands.

March 6. The Empreſs Queen of Hungary has diſpoſed of the regiment of foot that was vacant by the death of Count Henry Joſeph Daun, lately deceaſed, in favour of Lieutenant-General O'Kelly, an Iriſh gentleman.
